Serial No 5

From — do — No 7931 of the 6th March 1905. States that Mr Alwar Iyengar has put in more Service than the 3 graduates teachers who are senior to him and that he has acted on two occasions in class CIV and that his claims for promotion were therefore considered superior to those of the 3 graduates referred to.

Subordinates as to whether the reasons 10/8/05 for supersession assigned by the D.I.General are sufficient and may be accepted & Alwar Iyengar ought to be promoted in preference to Sridhara Murti for whom there was no vacancy in class C IV when he was first appointed.

Enclosures

With reference to General Secretary's docket No 7857 2nd (247-04) 4 dated 6th March 1905 enquiring why the claims of the three graduate teachers who are above Mr Alwar Iyengar in the grade and who draw more pay than he were not considered in connection with the vacancy in class C IV, I have the honour to inform that, of the three graduates above Mr Alwar Iyengar BA, in class D I Mr N Venkataramanaya BA, and Mr S S Raghavachar BA were appointed temporarily in charge of sections B of the IV Form on Rs 50, in the Maharajas College, Mysore and in the Tumkur High School respectively in 1902 when the attendance of the IV Form so far increased as to necessitate the division of Form IV into two sections. This temporary arrangement has had to be continued as the two sections have been kept up. The service of both these teachers commenced in 1899, while Mr. Alwar Iyengar commenced in 1896. But for the accident that additional sections of Form IV were opened and Rs 50 was sanctioned temporarily for the two teachers, they would now be below Mr. Alwar Iyengar.

2 Mr. H Krishnachar commenced service in 1900 on Rs 37½ as an assistant master acting on half pay for a female teacher in the Maharani's College, who ultimately died. On her death Krishnachar was confirmed on Rs 38 in February 1900 and so got the start of Alwar Iyengar. The length of his total service is five years while that of Alwar Iyengar is eight years and a half.

3 Under these circumstances Mr. Alwar Iyengar's claims to promotion have been considered superior to those of the three graduates named. Moreover on two occasions Mr. Alwar Iyengar has acted for three months and for a year in class C IV
